

Lottie Moon

Lottie Moon was appointed a missionary to China July 7, 1873. She was a bold woman of action and radical obedience who shared Christ with her beloved Chinese to the end. Lottie died Dec. 24, 1912, leaving a legacy that lives on. Her influence led to the establishment of the Woman's Missionary Union and inspired other missions pioneers to join her on the field. Her passionate letter-writing led to the offering that bears her name today—Lottie Moon Christmas Offering® for International Missions.
